Message

Indian Medical Association has been playing an important role in membership services, CME and healthcare delivery since its inception through its wings and branches very efficiently, but self protection has become a important aspect for the medical professionals nowadays, as it is common through various media that doctors are targeted and attacked both physically and through litigation under the cover of 'medical negligence'.

So 'Professional Protection Scheme' has become an important tool of IMA to educate the medical professionals to protect themselves from the mischievous elements in the society and provide profesional & legal support to its members.

I wish all the best to the whole team of 'Professional Protection Scheme, Gujarat State Branch, IMA' on the 'Journey from AMA House to PPS House.
